

2009/2010 Preservation Institute: Care and Management of Paper and Print Collections

The 2009/2010 Preservation Institute will acquaint participants with the issues, practices and current scholarship pertaining to the preservation of paper and print collections. Institute participants will work with a variety of preservation practitioners to gain both theoretical and hands-on experience. Participants will attend six sessions, each focusing on a different aspect of paper and print preservation. For more information and to download the application form for this Institute, visit the Events section on our homepage at
