Continuing Education Committee (CE)

Committee Charge:
The Western New York Library Resources Council Continuing Education Committee is organized to plan, develop, or assist with continuing education opportunities that benefit the members of the Western New York library community.
To that end, we:
• Assess the continuing education needs and concerns of librarians and support staff within Western New York, through surveys and other measures;
• Provide networking opportunities that foster a supportive environment for the good of the Western New York library community;
• Identify and communicate with other regional library organizations to encourage the joint development and support of continuing education opportunities and;
• Monitor continuing education programs and provide information for the WNYLRC newsletter, listserv, social media and other avenues of communicating these opportunities.
